Recruiting a Level 6 Public Health Apprentice in 2023/24.

As we firm and/ or make workforce development decisions for the New Year, this newsletter serves as a refresher of the information currently available to the region to support staff members interested in upskilling and the recruitment of new entrants for the Level 6 Public Health Practitioner apprenticeship standard.

Employers are encouraged to engage directly with the apprenticeship teams of training providers they wish to work with.

The table below is a summary of the unique offers from four training providers submitted to the region. Attached is a table of the detailed offers with contacts from the training providers.

Training Provider	Delivery Start Date	Enrolment Period	Delivery Format
University of Coventry	January 2022	January	Both online and in-person on Coventry campus
University of Salford	January 2021	January	100% in-person on Salford campus
University of Sunderland	September 2021	September	100% in-person on Sunderland campus
University of West England (UWE)	September 2021	September	100% online

A projected timeline for any employer considering a September 2023 enrolment can be found below.

Accessing Level 3 Community Health & Wellbeing Worker Apprenticeship Training.

Leeds City College is an approved training listed on the standard based within the Yorkshire and Humber region.

Key attributes of Leeds City College’s provision include

1. Apprentices can enrol anytime they are ready to join the course.
2. Apprentices attending college once a month to access in-person training.

3. Training assessors also visit apprentices at their workplace monthly to support learning.
4. Modules are designed around the 10 competencies of the standard
5. Employers outside of West Yorkshire can have a conversation with Tasleam.Khusal@leedscitycollege.ac.uk to find out more about how they can support your locality.
